

Keep your hands off the Wisconsin No Call List!!
Telemarketers are even more annoying than politicians! I can find anything I want by looking on the internet or our local telephone book. If they want to reach people they can put ads in the local papers. That will help OUR economy more than paying people in India to call.